Local 31 President and International Vice President Stan Hennessy Elected as a Director on WESTAC

Vancouver, BC - International Vice President Stan Hennessy has four decades of experience representing Teamster members in the trucking and warehousing industry in British Columbia and the Yukon Territory. The elected four term President of Teamsters Local Union No. 31 is an industry leader and represents members that provide driving services to and from the ports, within city limits, over-the-road highway and warehouses.

In March 2019, President Hennessy was elected as a Director to the Western Transportation Advisory Council (WESTAC). As a Director, President Hennessy will utilize his experience representing workers and his knowledge of the trucking and warehousing industry.

The WESTAC council is comprised of Labour Unions, Provincial and Federal Government, Trucking and Rail companies, Sea Ports and Grain Terminals, and Shipping companies.

WESTAC is a cooperative approach to addressing issues impacting the transportation system in Western Canada. The council quickly sets out defining the major issues impeding the efficient movement of people and goods within and between the four Canadian Western provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, as well as to and from other domestic and world markets.
