TEAMSTERS ATTEND CUPE 561 STRIKE RALLY

CHILLIWACK, BC

On Wednesday, April 12, Teamsters Local Union No. 31 joined with striking CUPE 561 Transit Members at its Public Strike Rally in Chilliwack, BC.

Numerous unions attended the rally in solidarity with striking transit workers on strike since March, fighting for fair wage increases, a pension and health plan.

The Teamsters Union will stand strong with CUPE Members to support their battle to win contract conditions they rightly deserve and which they are fighting hard to gain.

Teamsters Local Union No. 31 proudly represents more than 8,300 hard-working members in British Columbia and the Yukon Territory, including general truck drivers, courier, public sector, warehouse and grocery workers, transit, coach, school bus drivers and monitors, lumber, pulp and paper workers and limousine chauffeurs, since 1936.
