TEAMSTERS HOST COURIER SUMMIT

On Saturday, September 17, Teamsters Local 31 held a training course for members employed in courier, package and parcel at the Union's head office on Annacis Island.

The 23 Purolator and United Parcel Service members learned vital skills in welcoming new members, activating member interest in union matters, approaching management on grievances, and much more.

Business Agents Grant Coleman and Mark Bethel hosted the "Courier Summit." Bros. Coleman and Bethel shared their decades of experience as Union Officers and drivers at Purolator and UPS. Also in attendance were Trustees and UPS Chief Steward Sean St. Pierre and Purolator Shop Steward Ahmnon Shabacon.

The Union thanks all of the Chief Stewards, Shop Stewards, Captains, and the rank-and-file members who attended the training program. The Union looks forward to holding more classes soon.

Teamsters, Local Union No. 31, proudly represents over 2,500 members in courier, package and parcel in British Columbia and the Yukon Territory since 1936.
