TEAMSTERS CELEBRATE HATS OFF DAY IN BURNABY, BC

Hats Off Day is a community-driven event featuring the best Burnaby Heights offers. The Teamsters Union proudly shared its Live Stage at Burnaby's most enormous and favourite festival near Hastings St. and Willingdon Ave. intersection.

Members of Local 31 set up "Club 31", the Teamsters community Tractor-Trailer Unit with a built-in stage and performance equipment. The Teamsters Stage attracted a ton of festival-goers. Especially nice was to share the Day with active and retired Teamster members and their families.

Now in its 36th year, Hats Off Day has been voted "Best Festival in Burnaby" since 2005 and today attracts more than 100,000 visitors annually from across the lower mainland.

This year the TEAMSTERS STAGE hosted three (3) live bands ranging from 1950's style Grand Slam Band, Iconic Tribute, performer Rod Stewart, and the Eddie Lam All-Star Band.

Hats Off Day is a great event for families and people who want to listen to live music, eat local food, and enjoy classic cars at the annual Show'n Shine. We look forward to seeing you there in June 2023!
