TEAMSTERS LOCAL 31 Stands with PNE Parking Attendants!

Teamsters Local 31 President Stan Hennessy, Secretary-Treasurer Caley Fieldhouse, and Business Agents, including Director of Organizing Ben Hennessy joined CUPE 1004 members at their rally in support of Parking Attendant Workers at the PNE.

This Fall, the PNE plans to eliminate the jobs of 20 dedicated employees, some with over 30 years of service.

This shameful and heavyhanded decision by the employer is a blatant act of corporate greed—one that does nothing to help the community, does nothing to lower parking costs, and only robs loyal workers of a wage.

The Teamsters Union proudly supports labour and labourers. We will always stand shoulder-to-shoulder with workers under attack.

The message is clear:

The PNE is NO FUN FOR WORKERS!

Teamsters Local Union No. 31 proudly represents more than 8,600 hard-working members in British Columbia and the Yukon Territory, including general truck drivers and industrial mechanics, courier, parcel and package handlers, public services, clerical, warehouse and grocery workers, transit, coach, school bus drivers and monitors, lumber, pulp and paper workers and limousine chauffeurs, since 1936.
