LOCAL 31 ART PRICE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Art Price memorial Scholarship is awarded annually to the child or grandchild of any Teamster member in good standing who exemplifies the encouragement and dedication of past member Art Price. It is awarded annually in the amount of $2500. Applicants should currently be enrolled in grade 12 or in a post-secondary institution—(college/university/trade school), 23 years old or younger.

The fund was created in 2007 to honour Brother Art “Buttons” Price who was a member of Local 31 from August of 1960, until his passing on April 22, 1993. In his long Teamster career, Brother Price served as Chairman for the shop stewards; he was a committee member on several sets of freight negotiations; and also held the positions of Business Representative and Secretary-Treasurer. He was always available and ready to serve others at any time, no matter whether friend or member.

Please provide a current transcript of grades and a résumé outlining community service and extra-curricular activities, no later than March 1, 2023. This should be sent complete with a cover letter, two letters of reference, and the attached application form, which can also be obtained by calling 604-527-2714.

You are requested to direct your application by the deadline date, to the attention of:

Stan Hennessy, President
Teamsters Local Union No. 31
#1 Grosvenor Square
Delta, BC V3M 5S1

You may send your applications by mail to the address above or you can e-mail to Alana Yuswack at ayuswack@teamsters31.ca.
