RE: Bargaining Update – TENTATIVE AGREEMENT REACHED

The Union is pleased to announce that the Employer and the Union have reached a tentative bargaining agreement on February 12, 2024.

I would like to thank the members of the Union Bargaining Committee: Sis. Cathy Hall, Olivia Kajander and Deanna Ruschke as well as Business Agent Mike Hennessy, for their assistance and hard work at the bargaining table during collective bargaining.

The Union will be releasing the tentative agreement document to the membership prior to holding an information meeting on Zoom to go over the details of the tentative agreement and answer any questions you may have. We will provide you the dates of when the tentative agreement document will be released as well as the date of the Zoom information meeting shortly. Ratification by our members will take place through electronic voting, with voting credentials and instructions received in your home mail. Please ensure that the Union has your correct mailing address otherwise your chance to participate in voting may be in jeopardy. Phone Shane St. Jean in the Dues office to confirm the Union has your correct mailing address - 604-527-2702.

Fraternally,

On Behalf of the Union Bargaining Committee
